

Genesis 4:1-8 • When Anger Takes Hold

1. (v.1-5) God, being God, has the right to determine what constitutes an acceptable sacrifice. He is the offended party as the result of mankind's sin, and He is the one to whom reconciliation is due.
2. (v.5b-7) Not dealing with anger or choosing to make someone the object of it provides sin the opportunity to overtake us.
3. (v.8) Satan is wants to use anger to bring a curse on those who succumb to sin and eliminate by their hand those correctly addressing sin.
