

Genesis 6:5-9:17 • Starting Over with Noah

1. (6:5-10) It begins with someone who is spiritually faithful regardless of the wicked world around them.
2. (6:11-22) On the one side God devotes to total destruction those on whom His judgment is directed; on the opposite side stand those faithful to Him with whom He makes promises of safety and redemption as strong as the judgments pronounced on the others.
3. (7:1-5) There is a period of preaching and preparation before the end ultimately comes.
4. (7:10-16) God chooses when to close the door forever.
5. (8:1-9) God's judgment works to destroy the wicked because of their inward condition yet serves to preserve and support the righteous because of their inward condition.
6. (8:13-19) The righteous never assume anything based on the circumstances, whether leading up to judgment or after it's subsided.
7. (8:20-22) For every covenant made between man and God, something has to be sacrificed to complete the deal.
8. (9:1-7) What God stated from the beginning remains the same regardless of mankind's failure to obey or attempts to redefine it.
9. (9:8-17) It ends with someone who is required to be spiritually faithful regardless of the wicked world around them.
