

Genesis 21:1-31 • Testing Family Relationships

1. (v.1-8) Without true _____, there is no true _____. The fulfillment of God's promises come at the _____ time in order to allow a greater work of _____ producing _____ in our life.
2. (v.9-13) When one side of a relationship is hopelessly rooted in the _____ and the other steadfast in the _____, _____ is required that God may properly work on both _____.
3. (v.14-21) God had his own _____ and _____ time for Hagar, which was not compatible with Abraham's. Hagar and Ishmael were also _____ by God, but had to pursue their own _____ by faith.
4. (Gal. 4:21-31)

• Hagar represents the Old Covenant of the _____, associated with the earthly _____ of Paul's day.

• Ishmael, the son of a _____, was born of the _____.

• Ishmael is a picture of Old Testament Israel under _____ to the _____.

• Sarah represents the New Covenant of _____, associated with the heavenly _____.

• Isaac, the son of a _____, was born of the _____.

• Isaac is a picture of the New Testament Church under the _____ of _____.

Just as the old nature is _____ with the new nature and _____ needs to take place, so we are no longer under the _____ so that the New Covenant of _____ is to be exclusively pursued.
