

Genesis 24 • The Servant & the Bride

1. (v.1-9) Abraham is an example of _____, choosing to live and make every _____ in accordance with God's _____.
2. (v.10-49) The servant and Rebekah are examples of _____, adhering to more than the minimum standards in the course of _____ to their _____ over them.
 - a. The example of the servant: As an example of _____, he believed in _____, knew how to _____ on the Lord, and was _____ to every word and instruction of his master.
 - b. The example of Rebekah: She is also an example of _____ in her attitude, spirit and work ethic, an example of the _____ that raised her to act appropriately even when away from their _____.
3. (v.50-60) Rebekah is an example of the crossroads at which every person ultimately finds themselves: _____. Will you proceed by _____ or will you remain where you are in _____?
4. (v.61-67) Having made the journey by _____, the Bride is welcomed by the Bridegroom and _____ all that was _____, forever _____ with Him.

Genesis 24 • The Servant & the Bride

1. (v.1-9) Abraham is an example of _____, choosing to live and make every _____ in accordance with God's _____.
2. (v.10-49) The servant and Rebekah are examples of _____, adhering to more than the minimum standards in the course of _____ to their _____ over them.
 - a. The example of the servant: As an example of _____, he believed in _____, knew how to _____ on the Lord, and was _____ to every word and instruction of his master.
 - b. The example of Rebekah: She is also an example of _____ in her attitude, spirit and work ethic, an example of the _____ that raised her to act appropriately even when away from their _____.
3. (v.50-60) Rebekah is an example of the crossroads at which every person ultimately finds themselves: _____. Will you proceed by _____ or will you remain where you are in _____?
4. (v.61-67) Having made the journey by _____, the Bride is welcomed by the Bridegroom and _____ all that was _____, forever _____ with Him.