

Genesis 35:1-21 • The Struggle for Spiritual Purity

1. (v.1) Past issues of _____ may have future _____.
2. (v.2-3) Issues of spiritual _____ always extend to those closest to us who have the most earthly _____ over us.
3. (v.4-5) One of the consequences of past issues in our life may be a _____ that has an adverse effect on _____.
4. (v.6-15) Another consequence may be personal _____ that past issues have somehow nullified God's _____.
5. (v.16-21) There may always be _____, but that does not always erase subsequent _____.

Some of the ways God redeemed bad situations in this chapter and turned them into something of value:

- Just like in Abraham's case, God used an incident to create a healthy _____ in the people around him who might be jealous or envious of his _____.
- God used the previous incidents of chapter 34 to cause Jacob to finally do something about the _____ in his midst.
- God used the flight to Bethel to _____ the Abrahamic Covenant and to _____ Jacob's name change.

Genesis 35:1-21 • The Struggle for Spiritual Purity

1. (v.1) Past issues of _____ may have future _____.
2. (v.2-3) Issues of spiritual _____ always extend to those closest to us who have the most earthly _____ over us.
3. (v.4-5) One of the consequences of past issues in our life may be a _____ that has an adverse effect on _____.
4. (v.6-15) Another consequence may be personal _____ that past issues have somehow nullified God's _____.
5. (v.16-21) There may always be _____, but that does not always erase subsequent _____.

Some of the ways God redeemed bad situations in this chapter and turned them into something of value:

- Just like in Abraham's case, God used an incident to create a healthy _____ in the people around him who might be jealous or envious of his _____.
- God used the previous incidents of chapter 34 to cause Jacob to finally do something about the _____ in his midst.
- God used the flight to Bethel to _____ the Abrahamic Covenant and to _____ Jacob's name change.