

Genesis 38 • Judah and Tamar

1. (v.1-5) When we separate from fellowship and pursue our worldly interests, we are setting ourselves up for eventual consequences.
2. (v.6-11) No issue is ever resolved through partial obedience. In fact, it often makes it worse.
3. (v.12-19) The world will always use your worldly weaknesses against you.
4. (v.20-26) It may take the righteousness of the world to shame the unrighteousness of the godly.
5. (v.27-30) What is always at stake is whether or not we return to the center of God's will.
