

Genesis 41:25-57 • From Degradation to Exultation

1. (v.25-32) The true role of a prophet is to point to God. The goal of revelation given to a prophet is to turn hearts to God.
2. (v.33-36) One must relinquish sole power over one's life, submitting to the direction and authority of Christ to address every issue in one's life.
3. (v.37-45) Exultation is something that is effected by God in the course of our carrying out His work and it is always for His purposes.
4. (v.46-49) Our work is always to stand in service before the King to carry out His commands.
5. (v.53-57) It always and ultimately comes down to the Word.
