

Leviticus 23 • The Lord's Appointed Times

1. (v.1-2) God calls His people to be _____ to Him _____.
2. (v.3) It's not about being obedient just when and where others can _____ us, but truly from the heart in whatever _____ we _____.
3. (v.4-8) First the blood of the _____, then the putting away of _____.
4. (v.9-14) The whole _____—both literal and spiritual—belongs to the Lord.
5. (v.15-21) The _____ that would come from the grain illustrated how _____ would be united in Christ through the Spirit at _____.
6. (v.22) A right relationship with _____ requires a right relationship with _____, even during the Lord's _____ times.
7. (v.23-25) Whereas the first set of feasts represent the work of the Messiah at His _____, the second set of feasts represent the work of the Messiah at His _____.
8. (v.26-32) The Messiah _____ for those who have _____ to Him in _____ and _____ from the heart.
9. (v.33-44) The Feast of Booths represents the establishment of the _____.

Leviticus 23 • The Lord's Appointed Times

1. (v.1-2) God calls His people to be _____ to Him _____.
2. (v.3) It's not about being obedient just when and where others can _____ us, but truly from the heart in whatever _____ we _____.
3. (v.4-8) First the blood of the _____, then the putting away of _____.
4. (v.9-14) The whole _____—both literal and spiritual—belongs to the Lord.
5. (v.15-21) The _____ that would come from the grain illustrated how _____ would be united in Christ through the Spirit at _____.
6. (v.22) A right relationship with _____ requires a right relationship with _____, even during the Lord's _____ times.
7. (v.23-25) Whereas the first set of feasts represent the work of the Messiah at His _____, the second set of feasts represent the work of the Messiah at His _____.
8. (v.26-32) The Messiah _____ for those who have _____ to Him in _____ and _____ from the heart.
9. (v.33-44) The Feast of Booths represents the establishment of the _____.