

Numbers 11 • I Want It My Way

1. (v.1-3) We're not supposed to complain about adversity – it's a test of faith.
2. (v.4-9) We're not supposed to complain about our personal needs – it's a test of faith.
3. (v.10-15) Legitimate complaints involve concern for carrying out God's will; illegitimate complains involve concern for our own will.
4. (v.16-23) It all boils down to the degree of faith we have in God's Word.
5. (v.24-30) The primary role of biblical leadership is to teach and uphold the Word of God.
6. (v.31-35) How we apply God's answers to our requests is just as important as how we make them.
7. (John 6:26-35)
 - a. Like the Israelites, they are seeking to fulfill their own desires.
 - b. Like the Israelites, they are focusing on perishable things at the expense of the eternal.
 - c. Like the Israelites, it's a test of faith.
 - d. The "bread" of God's Word comes first through the Law given through Moses, now through Christ the Word Himself.
 - e. The answer is faith and obedience.
