

Deuteronomy 27-28 • The Two Witnesses

1. (27:1-8) It is not about merely hearing or reciting _____, but putting it into practice.
2. (27:9-10) Obedience to God's Word is not only an _____ requirement, but together for the whole of God's _____.
3. (27:11-26) The most visible proof of the quality of our faith and obedience is revealed in our _____ with _____.
4. (28:1-14) The greater goal is to become so personally obedient that God's people become a visible _____ to the rest of the world. Disobedience is actually a visible _____ of false worship. What is not of _____ is of the _____.
5. (28:15-26) Disobedience to God's Word results in a visible breakdown in both our personal and spiritual _____. Unfortunately, _____ is as powerful a witness to the non-believing world as _____.
6. (28:27-46) Just as signs and wonders are intended to convey the greater importance of accepting God's _____ which accompanies them, so too are the signs and wonders of God's _____ which come upon His people for unfaithfulness.
7. (28:47-57) _____ to God's judgment inevitably leads to even greater _____.
8. (28:58-68) God's people are not to return to _____—a biblical metaphor for the old life from which they were saved, but the consequences of the old life (and worse) await the previously faithful when _____.

Deuteronomy 27-28 • The Two Witnesses

1. (27:1-8) It is not about merely hearing or reciting _____, but putting it into practice.
2. (27:9-10) Obedience to God's Word is not only an _____ requirement, but together for the whole of God's _____.
3. (27:11-26) The most visible proof of the quality of our faith and obedience is revealed in our _____ with _____.
4. (28:1-14) The greater goal is to become so personally obedient that God's people become a visible _____ to the rest of the world. Disobedience is actually a visible _____ of false worship. What is not of _____ is of the _____.
5. (28:15-26) Disobedience to God's Word results in a visible breakdown in both our personal and spiritual _____. Unfortunately, _____ is as powerful a witness to the non-believing world as _____.
6. (28:27-46) Just as signs and wonders are intended to convey the greater importance of accepting God's _____ which accompanies them, so too are the signs and wonders of God's _____ which come upon His people for unfaithfulness.
7. (28:47-57) _____ to God's judgment inevitably leads to even greater _____.
8. (28:58-68) God's people are not to return to _____—a biblical metaphor for the old life from which they were saved, but the consequences of the old life (and worse) await the previously faithful when _____.