

Joshua 3 • The Second Crossing

1. (v.1-5) New believers find that they are going to be led to a _____ life in a _____ way, for which they must prepare themselves by the working of God's _____. A special working of God requires a special _____.
2. (v.6-8) It is not only individual believers or the Church as a whole who must follow _____ the _____, but the Church must be led by ministers leading by the example of His _____.
3. (v.9-13) It is God's Word which goes before us and provides the right _____. And it is by God's Word we can deal with all the worldly _____ which attempt to _____ that very Word in our life.
4. (v.14-17) The most intimidating and impossible _____ of the world are _____ by faith and obedience to God's _____.

Overall Application:

That which began in the first crossing, where _____ as the pillar of cloud and fire revealed the way to an initial act of _____, further represented by _____ out of the old life represented by _____, is completed by the second crossing where _____ the Word guides us into His _____ by our daily pursuit of _____ in order to defeat the world and its attempt to draw us back into the _____.

Joshua 3 • The Second Crossing

1. (v.1-5) New believers find that they are going to be led to a _____ life in a _____ way, for which they must prepare themselves by the working of God's _____. A special working of God requires a special _____.
2. (v.6-8) It is not only individual believers or the Church as a whole who must follow _____ the _____, but the Church must be led by ministers leading by the example of His _____.
3. (v.9-13) It is God's Word which goes before us and provides the right _____. And it is by God's Word we can deal with all the worldly _____ which attempt to _____ that very Word in our life.
4. (v.14-17) The most intimidating and impossible _____ of the world are _____ by faith and obedience to God's _____.

Overall Application:

That which began in the first crossing, where _____ as the pillar of cloud and fire revealed the way to an initial act of _____, further represented by _____ out of the old life represented by _____, is completed by the second crossing where _____ the Word guides us into His _____ by our daily pursuit of _____ in order to defeat the world and its attempt to draw us back into the _____.