

1 Samuel 1-3 • How God Deals with Bad Leaders

1. (1:12-18) Bad leaders seem more accustomed to _____ behavior rather than inspiring _____ behavior.
2. (2:12-18) Bad leaders are often not just more concerned about _____ than others, but even more than the _____.
3. (2:22-26) Bad leaders often operate with no real _____.
4. (2:27-36) There is no special requirement, education, or office that one must hold to speak against _____—just that one is a “_____” their self.
5. (3:1-21) It may not be our place to force action, but most certainly to publicly identify _____ behavior, godliness vs. _____, and to walk in personal _____ to perfect our own life and ministry.
6. (8:1-9) Because of their own spiritual condition, people are given the leaders they _____.

1 Samuel 1-3 • How God Deals with Bad Leaders

1. (1:12-18) Bad leaders seem more accustomed to _____ behavior rather than inspiring _____ behavior.
2. (2:12-18) Bad leaders are often not just more concerned about _____ than others, but even more than the _____.
3. (2:22-26) Bad leaders often operate with no real _____.
4. (2:27-36) There is no special requirement, education, or office that one must hold to speak against _____—just that one is a “_____” their self.
5. (3:1-21) It may not be our place to force action, but most certainly to publicly identify _____ behavior, godliness vs. _____, and to walk in personal _____ to perfect our own life and ministry.
6. (8:1-9) Because of their own spiritual condition, people are given the leaders they _____.