

1 Samuel 8 • The Demand for a King

1. (v.1-5) There's a difference between requesting right, _____ leadership as opposed to a leadership structure which mimics the _____.
2. (v.6-9) Substituting earthly leadership models for God's ways is always a form of _____, of choosing another _____ in His place.
3. (v.10-18) As is so often taught throughout Scripture, the _____ is often a reflection of the _____.
4. (v.19-22) True spiritual leaders allow _____ to dictate when a break in fellowship is required. The righteous man allows God to work every opportunity for _____ until no such opportunity is any longer available.

1 Samuel 8 • The Demand for a King

1. (v.1-5) There's a difference between requesting right, _____ leadership as opposed to a leadership structure which mimics the _____.
2. (v.6-9) Substituting earthly leadership models for God's ways is always a form of _____, of choosing another _____ in His place.
3. (v.10-18) As is so often taught throughout Scripture, the _____ is often a reflection of the _____.
4. (v.19-22) True spiritual leaders allow _____ to dictate when a break in fellowship is required. The righteous man allows God to work every opportunity for _____ until no such opportunity is any longer available.