

1 Samuel 24 • God's Ways vs. Man's Ways

1. (v.1-3) Saul has set _____ as the center of all things displacing _____ authority in his life; David has set _____ apart in the course of yielding to _____ authority in his life.
2. (v.4-7) David never assumed that the circumstances automatically meant it must be from _____, even when _____ claimed so. He always _____ of the _____ to know for sure.
3. (v.8-15) Operating according to _____ ways provides the opportunity for those operating according to _____ ways to repent and return to _____ ways.
4. (v.16-19) Repentance is a powerful _____ to others who are pursuing their own ways.
5. (v.20-22) Ultimately Saul recognized the _____ of his ways and acknowledged their giving way to _____ ways through David.

1 Samuel 24 • God's Ways vs. Man's Ways

1. (v.1-3) Saul has set _____ as the center of all things displacing _____ authority in his life; David has set _____ apart in the course of yielding to _____ authority in his life.
2. (v.4-7) David never assumed that the circumstances automatically meant it must be from _____, even when _____ claimed so. He always _____ of the _____ to know for sure.
3. (v.8-15) Operating according to _____ ways provides the opportunity for those operating according to _____ ways to repent and return to _____ ways.
4. (v.16-19) Repentance is a powerful _____ to others who are pursuing their own ways.
5. (v.20-22) Ultimately Saul recognized the _____ of his ways and acknowledged their giving way to _____ ways through David.