

2 Samuel 9 • From Outside to Inside

1. (v.1-3) The king is seeking out someone to whom he wants to show _____.
2. (v.4-5) The king seeks someone not currently a _____ of the Promised Land.
3. (v.6) They respond in _____ to the king calling them by name.
4. (v.7) The king's promises are _____.
5. (v.8) Once exiled and considered _____, by the king's calling and grace they are made _____ again.
6. (v.9-10) They are brought into _____—a real relationship—with the king.
7. (v.11) Mephibosheth is a type of _____ who has been crippled by _____. Through no achievement or accomplishment or goodness of his own, the king (_____) has called him in and shown favor upon him for the sake of Jonathan (_____). Mephibosheth is now treated as a _____.
8. (v.12-13) Just as we all will some day, he now lives with the king in _____.

2 Samuel 9 • From Outside to Inside

1. (v.1-3) The king is seeking out someone to whom he wants to show _____.
2. (v.4-5) The king seeks someone not currently a _____ of the Promised Land.
3. (v.6) They respond in _____ to the king calling them by name.
4. (v.7) The king's promises are _____.
5. (v.8) Once exiled and considered _____, by the king's calling and grace they are made _____ again.
6. (v.9-10) They are brought into _____—a real relationship—with the king.
7. (v.11) Mephibosheth is a type of _____ who has been crippled by _____. Through no achievement or accomplishment or goodness of his own, the king (_____) has called him in and shown favor upon him for the sake of Jonathan (_____). Mephibosheth is now treated as a _____.
8. (v.12-13) Just as we all will some day, he now lives with the king in _____.