

Ezra 9-10 • Personal & Corporate Responsibility

1. (v.1-4) The main issue involved is really that of “ _____ ”, being set apart exclusively to God’s Word and ways alone.
2. (v.5-7) When the “ _____ ” remain silent, they actually become part of the _____.
3. (v.8-9) The grace of God just doesn’t _____ the situation, but provides a _____:
 - a. The opportunity to _____.
 - b. The opportunity to _____.
 - c. The opportunity to _____.
4. (v.10-15) Personal reconciliation begins with _____ from the heart and acknowledgment of _____. It does not seek to be excused, but given over to God’s grace.
5. (v.10:7-12) All three of the following actions need to be present whether it’s a matter of personal or corporate reconciliation:
 - a. _____.
 - b. _____.
 - c. _____.
6. (v.10:13-14) Obedience to God’s Word and ways is essential in addressing sin. We can’t create “ _____ ” in the process of making things right.

Points of Application

1. If we witness another Believer’s sin, we are accountable for our _____.
2. The process of _____ isn’t exclusively a personal experience; it’s for the whole group as well.
3. God’s grace isn’t about overlooking faults or shortcomings, but providing the opportunity to _____ and _____ them.
4. When you have _____, you don’t need signs or wonders. What has already been revealed is enough. _____ is the greater “sign”.

Ezra 9-10 • Personal & Corporate Responsibility

1. (v.1-4) The main issue involved is really that of “ _____ ”, being set apart exclusively to God’s Word and ways alone.
2. (v.5-7) When the “ _____ ” remain silent, they actually become part of the _____.
3. (v.8-9) The grace of God just doesn’t _____ the situation, but provides a _____:
 - a. The opportunity to _____.
 - b. The opportunity to _____.
 - c. The opportunity to _____.
4. (v.10-15) Personal reconciliation begins with _____ from the heart and acknowledgment of _____. It does not seek to be excused, but given over to God’s grace.
5. (v.10:7-12) All three of the following actions need to be present whether it’s a matter of personal or corporate reconciliation:
 - a. _____.
 - b. _____.
 - c. _____.
6. (v.10:13-14) Obedience to God’s Word and ways is essential in addressing sin. We can’t create “ _____ ” in the process of making things right.

Points of Application

1. If we witness another Believer’s sin, we are accountable for our _____.
2. The process of _____ isn’t exclusively a personal experience; it’s for the whole group as well.
3. God’s grace isn’t about overlooking faults or shortcomings, but providing the opportunity to _____ and _____ them.
4. When you have _____, you don’t need signs or wonders. What has already been revealed is enough. _____ is the greater “sign”.