

Nehemiah 1-2 • Biblical Project Management

1. (1:1-11) Nehemiah was not in an ideal position _____, but in recognizing God's sovereignty he was in an ideal position _____.
2. (2:1-8) In terms of project management:
 - a. He first _____ about it.
 - b. He _____ for the right opportunity.
 - c. He let the king _____ the situation.
 - d. He was _____, sharing his feelings and in doing so, not making the king look _____, as if it was his _____.
 - e. He was _____ the entire time.
 - f. He affirmed his _____ to the king.
 - g. He gave the king many " _____," or opportunities to say _____. In other words, Nehemiah didn't back the king into a _____ or no-win _____. He allowed the king to maintain _____ of the decision.
 - h. He had a well thought-out _____ that included a _____.
 - i. He had anticipated that there might be problems once he got there, therefore he got it in _____.
 - j. He had the _____ list all ready and prepared.
3. To whom did Nehemiah give credit when it was all said and done? _____.

Nehemiah 1-2 • Biblical Project Management

1. (1:1-11) Nehemiah was not in an ideal position _____, but in recognizing God's sovereignty he was in an ideal position _____.
2. (2:1-8) In terms of project management:
 - a. He first _____ about it.
 - b. He _____ for the right opportunity.
 - c. He let the king _____ the situation.
 - d. He was _____, sharing his feelings and in doing so, not making the king look _____, as if it was his _____.
 - e. He was _____ the entire time.
 - f. He affirmed his _____ to the king.
 - g. He gave the king many " _____," or opportunities to say _____. In other words, Nehemiah didn't back the king into a _____ or no-win _____. He allowed the king to maintain _____ of the decision.
 - h. He had a well thought-out _____ that included a _____.
 - i. He had anticipated that there might be problems once he got there, therefore he got it in _____.
 - j. He had the _____ list all ready and prepared.
3. To whom did Nehemiah give credit when it was all said and done? _____.