

Job 6 • Who Is Really Being Tested?

1. (v.1-7) The whole _____ of truth, often represented in Scripture as metaphorical _____, is unpalatable in the absence of true _____. When presented this way, it actually _____ the one offering the _____.
2. (v.8-13) Trials are not really a _____ test of endurance, but a _____ one. It is testing the limits of _____ in God's Word by way of _____ distress.
3. (v.14-23) Divine trials can be just as much a test for the _____ as those needing to be _____. We must guard against turning it into an _____ to focus on our own fears and weaknesses, turning them back upon the actual _____ of the situation.
4. (v.24-30) Even _____—applied out of context—is damaging, but even more so when it is actually applied for _____ reasons disguised as an _____ to the sufferer.
