

Job 25-27:6 • Man's Words vs. God's Words

1. (25:1-6) There is no comfort or resolution in the _____ when it not only does not _____ to the person or situation, but is actually _____.
2. (26:1-4) There is no comfort in the _____ when it is actually an attempt to _____ one's self in a _____ to support and benefit others. A false _____ often speaks from the _____ to satisfy or even elevate himself in the course of appearing to _____ to a need.
3. (26:5-14) A false attempt to _____ presents itself as knowing God's working and intentions where His _____ is concerned. It proceeds from an _____ of understanding far more than that which God has actually _____, and in any case, man's words fall well short of God's _____.
4. (27:1-6) The true spiritual _____ that God's Word is actually at work is proven in our _____. The authentic does not merely " _____ the _____", but " _____ the _____".