

Job 28 • The Pursuit for What Matters

1. (v.1-11) Man goes to great lengths and efforts to uncover _____ things that are hidden and buried in _____, bringing them out into the _____ of his world for his use. This is an allusion to the _____.

2. (v.12-22) Even the most valuable earthly commodities cannot purchase something that can only be obtained by _____ to God's _____. It does not exist in any form that man can obtain by his own _____ and _____.

3. (v.23-28) What matters most is _____ (extreme _____ for) of the _____ and _____ separation from _____.

Job 28 • The Pursuit for What Matters

1. (v.1-11) Man goes to great lengths and efforts to uncover _____ things that are hidden and buried in _____, bringing them out into the _____ of his world for his use. This is an allusion to the _____.

2. (v.12-22) Even the most valuable earthly commodities cannot purchase something that can only be obtained by _____ to God's _____. It does not exist in any form that man can obtain by his own _____ and _____.

3. (v.23-28) What matters most is _____ (extreme _____ for) of the _____ and _____ separation from _____.