

Job 30 • Where Are You, God?

---

1. (v.1-8) We can feel distant spiritually when we begin to think we should be better off than others.
2. (v.9-15) We can feel distant spiritually when we feel we are being treated as the wicked should be who appear to be better off than us.
3. (v.16-23) Even Christ experienced God's silence. (Mt. 27:6)
What is often needed most is not a sermon but companionship.
4. (v.24-31) It is most often an issue of endurance, not a shortage of faith.

Traumatic events often invoke the grief reaction:

- Shock
- Denial
- Anger
- Bargaining
- Depression
- Acceptance
