

Job 36:1-16 • The Working of God's Righteousness

1. (v.1-5) Biblical _____ does not exist in the absence of _____—the application of God's _____.
2. (v.6-7) There are no promises of remedies for the _____ of this _____. The guarantee is for the final, _____ outcome, not necessarily for the present, _____ situation.
3. (v.8-10) Whereas unrighteousness is actually the condition of being _____ to things of this world, God's righteousness is actually a choice in, and expression of, spiritual _____. (Rom. 6:17-19)
4. (v.11-14) Righteousness comes about through one's recognition of the _____ holding them and turning to _____ for _____; the godless never turn to _____.
5. (v.15-16) The righteous are not exempt from _____, but are listening to God—evidenced by their _____ to His Word—so that they are led to a place of God's _____ and _____.

Job 36:1-16 • The Working of God's Righteousness

1. (v.1-5) Biblical _____ does not exist in the absence of _____—the application of God's _____.
2. (v.6-7) There are no promises of remedies for the _____ of this _____. The guarantee is for the final, _____ outcome, not necessarily for the present, _____ situation.
3. (v.8-10) Whereas unrighteousness is actually the condition of being _____ to things of this world, God's righteousness is actually a choice in, and expression of, spiritual _____. (Rom. 6:17-19)
4. (v.11-14) Righteousness comes about through one's recognition of the _____ holding them and turning to _____ for _____; the godless never turn to _____.
5. (v.15-16) The righteous are not exempt from _____, but are listening to God—evidenced by their _____ to His Word—so that they are led to a place of God's _____ and _____.