

Job 42 • God is Always in Control

1. (v.1-6) Man has neither the understanding nor the power to hold God _____ for His _____—even suffering. Spiritual things are taking place outside of our _____ for which we have to _____ God.

2. (v.7-17) God does not condemn for asking _____, only those who presume to _____ for _____.

The Greatest Lesson of Job:

In Job God allowed an _____ man to suffer for His purposes in the course of dealing with _____ (_____); it foreshadows when God will allow the most _____ man of all to suffer and die on the _____ in the ultimate confrontation with _____ (_____).
