

Psalm 119 • Zayin, Heth & Teth (#7-9)

1. (v.49-56) Zayin (ז): Through It All. Note that neither was a _____ sought to rescue the author personally, nor was God's _____ called down to eliminate the source of the affliction. What he seeks is to maintain personal _____ to God's Word regardless.
2. (v.57-64) Heth (ח): My Portion. Believers devoted to God's Word understand that their "portion" or _____ is not the things of _____ life, but the _____, and always act accordingly in both their heavenly and earthly _____.
3. (v.65-72) Teth (ט): The Right Result from Discipline. _____ is the only cure for _____, and _____ for _____ to God's Word and ways.

Application: Personal faithfulness to God's Word guides from this life to the next even through the trials the world brings or those we bring on ourselves.

Psalm 119 • Zayin, Heth & Teth (#7-9)

1. (v.49-56) Zayin (ז): Through It All. Note that neither was a _____ sought to rescue the author personally, nor was God's _____ called down to eliminate the source of the affliction. What he seeks is to maintain personal _____ to God's Word regardless.
2. (v.57-64) Heth (ח): My Portion. Believers devoted to God's Word understand that their "portion" or _____ is not the things of _____ life, but the _____, and always act accordingly in both their heavenly and earthly _____.
3. (v.65-72) Teth (ט): The Right Result from Discipline. _____ is the only cure for _____, and _____ for _____ to God's Word and ways.

Application: Personal faithfulness to God's Word guides from this life to the next even through the trials the world brings or those we bring on ourselves.