

Psalm 119 • Mem, Nun & Samekh (#13-15)

1. (v.97-104) Mem (מ): The Power of Meditation. This all comports to the theme of _____ on God's Word, meaning that it is not just never out of our _____, but that we can no longer even entertain an _____ to first and foremost obey it.
2. (v.105-112) Nun (נ): The Light of the Word. God's Word will always provide enough _____ to allow us to keep to the proper path. As Jesus IS the Word, we can see why, in _____, there is no need for any other _____.
3. (v.113-120) Samekh (ס): The Right Response. The right response to the total spectrum of _____ is God's Word. It _____ us, _____ us, and always comes at the appropriate _____.

Overall Application

Q: How might these teachings actually successively lead into each other?

- We incorporate God's Word into our _____ life.
- God's Word _____ our way.
- God's Word works in us _____ and as a visible _____.

Psalm 119 • Mem, Nun & Samekh (#13-15)

1. (v.97-104) Mem (מ): The Power of Meditation. This all comports to the theme of _____ on God's Word, meaning that it is not just never out of our _____, but that we can no longer even entertain an _____ to first and foremost obey it.
2. (v.105-112) Nun (נ): The Light of the Word. God's Word will always provide enough _____ to allow us to keep to the proper path. As Jesus IS the Word, we can see why, in _____, there is no need for any other _____.
3. (v.113-120) Samekh (ס): The Right Response. The right response to the total spectrum of _____ is God's Word. It _____ us, _____ us, and always comes at the appropriate _____.

Overall Application

Q: How might these teachings actually successively lead into each other?

- We incorporate God's Word into our _____ life.
- God's Word _____ our way.
- God's Word works in us _____ and as a visible _____.