

Psalm 49 • How to Preach the Gospel

1. (v.1-4) An authentic public witness and testimony has the best chance of being _____ when it comes from a faith putting God's _____ into practice. To preach the _____, one must live the _____.
2. (v.5-9) A biblical public witness and testimony is concerned with the _____ of the things of this life and the _____ for the next.
3. (v.10-12) Non-believers need to be _____ to see that the way they seek to make their name and legacy live on in future earthly generations is exactly what _____ offers, except in how and what it is _____ on.
4. (v.13-15) A biblical public witness and testimony communicates the fact that those who _____ the most in their earthly _____ will find none in eternity, while those who places their trust in _____ are received eternally into _____.
5. A biblical public witness and testimony is not a call to physical _____, but to spiritual _____. It is a call to _____ all to the Lord so as to both attain a lasting _____ and leave behind something which genuinely _____ to others.

Psalm 49 • How to Preach the Gospel

1. (v.1-4) An authentic public witness and testimony has the best chance of being _____ when it comes from a faith putting God's _____ into practice. To preach the _____, one must live the _____.
2. (v.5-9) A biblical public witness and testimony is concerned with the _____ of the things of this life and the _____ for the next.
3. (v.10-12) Non-believers need to be _____ to see that the way they seek to make their name and legacy live on in future earthly generations is exactly what _____ offers, except in how and what it is _____ on.
4. (v.13-15) A biblical public witness and testimony communicates the fact that those who _____ the most in their earthly _____ will find none in eternity, while those who places their trust in _____ are received eternally into _____.
5. A biblical public witness and testimony is not a call to physical _____, but to spiritual _____. It is a call to _____ all to the Lord so as to both attain a lasting _____ and leave behind something which genuinely _____ to others.