

Psalm 62 • Living with Silence (According to God's Standards)

1. (v.1-2) God is a _____ place to _____ in while we _____.
2. (v.3-4) Outside pressure seems more powerful than it really is when we're _____ on God.
 - a. It's difficult to wait in silence because the chief weapon of our enemy is _____.
3. (v.5-8) We don't just trust God when He says "Yes" or "No", but " _____ " as well.
 - a. It's appropriate to _____ to God while waiting, just not to engage in a dialog that reveals we don't really _____ Him.
4. (v.9-10) Earthly pressure often comes from the things it holds important such as _____ and _____.
5. (v.11-12) Ironically, it's _____ that comforts and supports us in times of silence.
 - a. "Silence" is not " _____ ", but being used as a test of _____.
6. Conclusion: One of the reasons God engages us in times of silence is it provides evidence to those around us that God's _____ is more important than our own _____.

Psalm 62 • Living with Silence (According to God's Standards)

1. (v.1-2) God is a _____ place to _____ in while we _____.
2. (v.3-4) Outside pressure seems more powerful than it really is when we're _____ on God.
 - a. It's difficult to wait in silence because the chief weapon of our enemy is _____.
3. (v.5-8) We don't just trust God when He says "Yes" or "No", but " _____ " as well.
 - a. It's appropriate to _____ to God while waiting, just not to engage in a dialog that reveals we don't really _____ Him.
4. (v.9-10) Earthly pressure often comes from the things it holds important such as _____ and _____.
5. (v.11-12) Ironically, it's _____ that comforts and supports us in times of silence.
 - a. "Silence" is not " _____ ", but being used as a test of _____.
6. Conclusion: One of the reasons God engages us in times of silence is it provides evidence to those around us that God's _____ is more important than our own _____.