

Psalm 73 • My Only Desire on Earth

1. (v.1-9) We are in danger of slipping when our sight is not fixed on the eternal but is allowed to be distracted by the temporal.
2. (v.10-14) Sometimes it does not appear that God is rewarding or responding to the right people.
3. (v.15-20) Such personal struggles cannot be settled in our own strength, but in the course of bringing them before God.
4. (v.21-24) God allows us to come to Him with our mixed feelings and will help us deal with them as long as we remain with Him and do not leave to pursue them.
5. (v.25-28) The biblically faithful are more concerned for God's name and glory far and above their own.
