

Psalms 95-100 • The Messiah in the Psalms

Psalm 95

The Messiah is equal to God. He was supposed to be the Shepherd accepted by Israel the flock, leading them into His place of rest as when He led them out of Egypt to Canaan. (From the old life to the new.)

Psalm 96

The Messiah will be the Judge the whole world according to the standard of God's Word. Israel was supposed to consecrate themselves to accept Him according to that standard.

Psalm 97

The Messiah will be King over each individual heart. Israel was to experience spiritual revival at His coming.

Psalm 98

The Messiah will be the Savior of the whole world. God's plan of salvation was to be revealed by the Messiah to the whole world through Israel.

Psalm 99

The Messiah will be holy but accessible. He would remove all obstacles so that everyone could worship and serve Him at the holy of holies.

Psalm 100

The Messiah will work righteousness and faithfulness from the heart. His people's lifestyle and behavior would be visibly changed.

Overall

Although rejected by Israel, Jesus fulfilled all these things in His First Coming for His Gentile Bride; He will still fulfill all these things at His Second Coming for His Jewish Bride.
