

Psalm 119 • The Nature of God's Word

(v.1-2 & 122) Obedience to God's Word is the basis for God's blessings.

(v.9 & 11) Putting God's Word into practice is the cure for habitual sin.

(v.24) God's Word is the best possible source when seeking guidance and direction.

(v.28) Through God's Word we learn how to deal with problems, not escape from them.

(v.38) The proof of the working of God's Word is He becomes greater and greater and we become lesser and lesser.

(v.42) Adhering to God's Word sets us apart to Him and provides a visible testimony to the rest of the world.

(v.45) God's Word provides freedom from the enslavement of sin in this life and the one to come.

(v.49-50 & 116) Because of God's Word which has been fulfilled to date, we can trust as future fact what has been promised is already as good as fulfilled as well.

(v.62) There is nothing we will encounter or experience in life which cannot be understood or explained within the context of God's Word.

(v.37 & 67) No true spiritual revival can be experienced without a return to God's Word.

(v.70) God's Word develops the ability to use the things of this world for the Master rather than being mastered by the things of this world.

(v.98-100) God's Word produces wisdom, insight, and understanding that far exceed worldly standards or limitations.

(v.103) God's Word is our nourishment.

(v.105) God's Word is our light in a world of darkness.

(v.117 & 74) God's Word is both a protection and a refuge for this life and the one to come.

(v.165) God's Word produces a visual witness in spite of earthly circumstances.

(v.170) Our prayer life is to be guided by the boundaries of God's Word in order for all things to work out according to His will instead of ours.

(v.46 & 120) Obedience to God's Word is the only way we can stand before authorities whether based on earth or in heaven.

(v.141 & 83) Regardless of ill-treatment by others in this life, we do not forsake God's Word and way but cling every tighter.
