

Isaiah 30:1-26 • When It All Goes South

1. (v.1-5) Placing a higher priority in something other than Christ always works until times of _____ and _____, at which time the true strength/weakness of both our _____ and the object of that _____ is exposed.
2. (v.6-7) The unspoken truth of our seeking _____ and _____ is that we ourselves cannot provide it and must seek something _____ that can; _____ is believing something else can.
3. (v.8-11) Rebellion is always accompanied and evidenced by a rejection of _____. This is why alternate alliances are attempted, because they say the things those who reject _____ want to hear in place of _____.
4. (v.12-14) Rebellion is like all other _____ behaviors – it takes a traumatic, rock-bottom _____ to get the person to realize the true nature of their misplaced _____.
5. (v.15-17) The resulting _____ learned at one's personal expense will be a very public _____ to everyone else about them.
6. (v.18-22) True _____ must be accompanied by a true commitment to God's Word to change one's _____ permanently and irrevocably.
7. (v.23-26) Even at their momentary best, a substitute for God could only provide a very _____ benefit and could never provide the spiritual _____ we need both for this _____ and the next.

Isaiah 30:1-26 • When It All Goes South

1. (v.1-5) Placing a higher priority in something other than Christ always works until times of _____ and _____, at which time the true strength/weakness of both our _____ and the object of that _____ is exposed.
2. (v.6-7) The unspoken truth of our seeking _____ and _____ is that we ourselves cannot provide it and must seek something _____ that can; _____ is believing something else can.
3. (v.8-11) Rebellion is always accompanied and evidenced by a rejection of _____. This is why alternate alliances are attempted, because they say the things those who reject _____ want to hear in place of _____.
4. (v.12-14) Rebellion is like all other _____ behaviors – it takes a traumatic, rock-bottom _____ to get the person to realize the true nature of their misplaced _____.
5. (v.15-17) The resulting _____ learned at one's personal expense will be a very public _____ to everyone else about them.
6. (v.18-22) True _____ must be accompanied by a true commitment to God's Word to change one's _____ permanently and irrevocably.
7. (v.23-26) Even at their momentary best, a substitute for God could only provide a very _____ benefit and could never provide the spiritual _____ we need both for this _____ and the next.