

Isaiah 40: The Arm of the Lord

1. (v.1-2) There are consequences for _____, but in God's economy there is also _____.
2. (v.3-8) The restoration process is taught in the example of _____.
 - a. All the issues of _____ must first be addressed.
 - b. Accompanied by a renewed commitment to _____.
3. (v.9-11) God's power, strength, and authority (a.k.a., "the arm of the Lord") are always balanced by His _____ and _____.
4. (v.12-17) The Old Testament system of sacrifices was never enough to bridge the gap to God; it has to be accomplished by _____.
5. (v.18-20) Man's most common problem is substituting the _____ for something man himself _____.
6. (v.21-26) Man often focuses on the _____ at the expense of the _____. The fact is that each one of us individually is known and called by God.
7. (v.27-31) Although God's arm sometimes acts in great, visible works of restoration, it most often expresses the hope and assurance of _____ while waiting for Him to act.
 - ❖ While Israel waited on the arm of the Lord to restore them from captivity, the Lord required _____.
 - ❖ While we wait on the arm of the Lord to bring to conclusion all things on earth, the Lord requires _____.
 - ❖ While we wait on the arm of the Lord to transition us from this life to the next, the Lord requires _____.

Isaiah 40: The Arm of the Lord

1. (v.1-2) There are consequences for _____, but in God's economy there is also _____.
2. (v.3-8) The restoration process is taught in the example of _____.
 - a. All the issues of _____ must first be addressed.
 - b. Accompanied by a renewed commitment to _____.
3. (v.9-11) God's power, strength, and authority (a.k.a., "the arm of the Lord") are always balanced by His _____ and _____.
4. (v.12-17) The Old Testament system of sacrifices was never enough to bridge the gap to God; it has to be accomplished by _____.
5. (v.18-20) Man's most common problem is substituting the _____ for something man himself _____.
6. (v.21-26) Man often focuses on the _____ at the expense of the _____. The fact is that each one of us individually is known and called by God.
7. (v.27-31) Although God's arm sometimes acts in great, visible works of restoration, it most often expresses the hope and assurance of _____ while waiting for Him to act.
 - ❖ While Israel waited on the arm of the Lord to restore them from captivity, the Lord required _____.
 - ❖ While we wait on the arm of the Lord to bring to conclusion all things on earth, the Lord requires _____.
 - ❖ While we wait on the arm of the Lord to transition us from this life to the next, the Lord requires _____.