

Jeremiah 1 • The Calling for God's Word

1. (v.1-3) It begins during the last biblical revival of Judah when the Lord was _____ by _____ everything devoted to other _____.
2. (v.4-10) God's Word has a dual purpose, to _____ and _____ those who adhere to it, or _____ and _____ those who do not.
3. (v.11-16) Everyone will be judged according to the degree of their _____ to God's Word. Each person will either bear the fruit of God's righteousness as a result of _____ to His Word, or judgment for _____.
4. (v.17-19) God calls us to resist from an _____ perspective, trusting Him to carry on the battle from the _____ perspective. HE will see that His word accomplishes the _____ for which it is sent, not us. Therefore we must not shrink from _____ it.

Jeremiah 1 • The Calling for God's Word

1. (v.1-3) It begins during the last biblical revival of Judah when the Lord was _____ by _____ everything devoted to other _____.
2. (v.4-10) God's Word has a dual purpose, to _____ and _____ those who adhere to it, or _____ and _____ those who do not.
3. (v.11-16) Everyone will be judged according to the degree of their _____ to God's Word. Each person will either bear the fruit of God's righteousness as a result of _____ to His Word, or judgment for _____.
4. (v.17-19) God calls us to resist from an _____ perspective, trusting Him to carry on the battle from the _____ perspective. HE will see that His word accomplishes the _____ for which it is sent, not us. Therefore we must not shrink from _____ it.