

Lamentations 4 • The Beginning of Wisdom

1. (v.1-6) The beginning of wisdom that leads the _____ to see things as God sees them is to stop trying to redefine His ways to conform to their own _____, but to actually change their _____ to conform to _____.
2. (v.7-8) The result of _____ is to become spiritually _____. They have become as _____ as the ways of God they themselves _____.
3. (v.9-10) They trusted in the things of this _____ rather than the things of _____, so the things of this _____ are literally failing to fulfill or even meet their _____.
4. (v.11-12) There was a false belief that God was protecting something _____ regardless of the _____ condition of its inhabitants.
5. (v.13-15) They so completely redefined what it meant to _____ God that it resulted in their becoming “_____”, _____ for the very presence and service of God.
6. (v.16-20) For these circumstances, the beginning of wisdom is to understand they are not experiencing a _____ of _____ or _____ by the world, but _____ for _____.
7. (v.21-22) Punishment does not go on _____ for those working toward _____ — the _____ is in sight.
