

Ezekiel 1 • God's Glory

1. (v.1-3) Ezekiel was both priest and prophet sent to the exiles of both Judah and Israel.
2. (v.4-14) It is more important to understand the underlying teaching than the symbols themselves: God is omnipresent.
  - a. Obedience to the Spirit's leading.
  - b. Moving to fulfill God's will.
  - c. God's servants never cease ministering to Him.
  - d. God's servant never cease carrying out His work.
3. (v.15-21) The greater lesson is that God is omniscient.
4. (v.22-25) The greater lesson is that when God speaks, even heavenly beings shut up and listen.
5. (v.26-28) The ultimate, visible expression of God's glory is Jesus Christ.
