

Ezekiel 13-14 • Quality, Not Quantity

1. (13:1-7) Jeremiah and Ezekiel were not prophets known for executing _____ or _____ – they were _____ of God's _____.
2. (13:8-11) Just as in Ezekiel's day, the false prophets of every age prophecy _____ and _____ in order to _____ those who are not walking by the _____ according to God's Word.
3. (13:12-16) Our spiritual _____ and every _____ of teaching on which we build going forward has to measure up to God's _____ in order to pass God's _____.
4. (13:17-19) When it comes to the Word of God and true worship, a false prophet will _____ things that are _____ to the _____ and personally gain _____ in the process.
5. (13:20-23) A major component of every revival, of every judgment of God in the past and to come, is the _____ of His _____.
6. (14:1-5) No one can be _____ against their will. Embracing a false teaching, false prophet, or substitute god is the NEXT _____ AFTER one has already chosen to follow their own _____ and _____ over God's.
7. (14:6-8) Those “ _____ ” by a false prophet were already _____ themselves before the false prophet came along. The false prophet merely recognizes the _____ to exploit what had already begun within each individual.
8. (14:9-11) The goal of _____ is personal reconciliation to the Person and service of God with an eye toward remaining spiritually acceptable _____ going forward.
9. (14:12-20) When a _____ is absent of accountability to God's Word and ways, it's ultimate destruction is assured. Because God judges each heart, the only exceptions will be made on an _____ basis. To not hold others accountable is to place yourself and everyone in the group _____.
10. (14:21-23) A given ministry's goals may be better served by focusing on _____ rather than _____.
