

Ezekiel 34 • The Shepherds & the Sheep

1. (v.1-6) Being a shepherd of God is all about the _____ and _____ of His sheep and _____ them when they stray. It's much more than merely _____ them, and requires constant _____ out among the sheep to do a good job – not requiring the sheep to _____ to them.
2. (v.7-10) The effects of false shepherds have far-reaching repercussions in that their weakening the flock from the _____ induces weakness to attacks from the _____.
3. (v.11-16) Christ's example of what service to God is supposed to mean was revealed when He went out _____ to feed and heal the people rather than bring them _____ to the _____.
4. (v.17-22) There is never a situation where we are not _____ for the quality of our _____ to, and _____ for, others.
5. (v.23-24) There is no _____ for both a false shepherd and the Great Shepherd.
6. (v.25-31) The ultimate work of the Great Shepherd still to come is the spiritual _____ of the whole _____ of Israel.

Ezekiel 34 • The Shepherds & the Sheep

1. (v.1-6) Being a shepherd of God is all about the _____ and _____ of His sheep and _____ them when they stray. It's much more than merely _____ them, and requires constant _____ out among the sheep to do a good job – not requiring the sheep to _____ to them.
2. (v.7-10) The effects of false shepherds have far-reaching repercussions in that their weakening the flock from the _____ induces weakness to attacks from the _____.
3. (v.11-16) Christ's example of what service to God is supposed to mean was revealed when He went out _____ to feed and heal the people rather than bring them _____ to the _____.
4. (v.17-22) There is never a situation where we are not _____ for the quality of our _____ to, and _____ for, others.
5. (v.23-24) There is no _____ for both a false shepherd and the Great Shepherd.
6. (v.25-31) The ultimate work of the Great Shepherd still to come is the spiritual _____ of the whole _____ of Israel.