

Daniel 2 • Hearing, But Not Doing

1. (v.1-3) There are non-believers who know they need a _____ answer to their most pressing problems, but because they lack _____, cannot figure it out on their own. They become spiritual _____ in search of the _____ they're confident exists yet eludes.
2. (v.4-13) Spiritual seekers need someone who can be a _____ to God, not a _____ replacement of Him. They may not be able to know the absolute _____, but often recognize spiritual _____.
3. (v.14-23) God is the answer for BOTH the _____ as represented by Daniel, and the _____ as represented by Nebuchadnezzar. The largest difference between the two is seeking and being _____ by the Source of all knowledge rather than merely coming into _____ with it.
4. (v.24-30) All a Believer can do for a non-Believer is allow the _____ of God to be _____. Daniel didn't offer his personal _____ nor assert his own _____, but truly acted as a _____ for a non-Believer to clearly hear God's _____.
5. (v.31-45) God's greater _____ purpose is for everyone to _____ and _____ His Word and ways to be eternally established through the _____ rather than by any earthly _____.
6. (v.46-49) It is the Believer's responsibility to maintain both the _____ of the truth of God's _____ at the same time as God's _____ in the course of all relationships in order to be a proper _____, regardless of the ultimate _____ of others.

Daniel 2 • Hearing, But Not Doing

1. (v.1-3) There are non-believers who know they need a _____ answer to their most pressing problems, but because they lack _____, cannot figure it out on their own. They become spiritual _____ in search of the _____ they're confident exists yet eludes.
2. (v.4-13) Spiritual seekers need someone who can be a _____ to God, not a _____ replacement of Him. They may not be able to know the absolute _____, but often recognize spiritual _____.
3. (v.14-23) God is the answer for BOTH the _____ as represented by Daniel, and the _____ as represented by Nebuchadnezzar. The largest difference between the two is seeking and being _____ by the Source of all knowledge rather than merely coming into _____ with it.
4. (v.24-30) All a Believer can do for a non-Believer is allow the _____ of God to be _____. Daniel didn't offer his personal _____ nor assert his own _____, but truly acted as a _____ for a non-Believer to clearly hear God's _____.
5. (v.31-45) God's greater _____ purpose is for everyone to _____ and _____ His Word and ways to be eternally established through the _____ rather than by any earthly _____.
6. (v.46-49) It is the Believer's responsibility to maintain both the _____ of the truth of God's _____ at the same time as God's _____ in the course of all relationships in order to be a proper _____, regardless of the ultimate _____ of others.