

Amos 7:1-8:3 • When There Are No Prophets Available

1. (v.1-3) The first judgment is represented by a _____ who consumes the _____. This has a _____ effect of judgment.
2. (v.4-6) The second judgment is represented by _____ which burns the _____ and even ruins the _____. This has a much _____ effect of judgment.
3. (v.7-9) The third judgment is represented by a _____ which represents very _____ judgments of God precisely _____ against His _____. This is a picture of _____ judgment.

Overall Point: _____ judgment did not come without _____, without increasingly _____ signs and events just as predicted for the End Times. Righteous men can minister and reach out to a _____ until final _____ results in final _____.

4. (v.10-13) The very government and religious authorities that would normally have been in place to _____ the people and keep them on the _____ path were, themselves, completely _____ and _____.
5. (v.14-15) When the authorities intended to lead the flock become _____ and _____, God raises up in their place someone _____ to do their job.
6. (v.16-17) One of the characteristics of God's final judgment is to _____ and mete out particular _____ for false teachers and false prophets.
7. (v.8:1-3) The final vision of judgment is represented by a basket of summer fruit, a symbol that Israel is _____ for punishment. As fruit is _____ from a tree, so the unfaithful will be _____ from the land.