

Zechariah 4 • The Work of the Spirit

---

1. (v.1-10) Biblically a lamp is often the metaphor for _____ and oil the _____ of the Holy Spirit. When combined with the repeated use of a plumb line to represent something being measured against the standard of _____, we see that Holy Spirit is at work bringing everything into _____ with God's Word and ways in spite of how it may appear from an earthly perspective. Being more concerned with quality than quantity, it is faithfulness in the _____ things which lead to accomplishing the _____ achievements of the Kingdom.
2. (v.11-14) Just as God the _____ was depicted in the previous vision in His dual work in both the heavenly and the earthly realms, so here the work of God the _____ is likewise illuminated. That there is an anointing of the _____ is sometimes an extension of His _____ to ensure that God's _____ is brought to _____.
3. Overall: What is seen here is a microcosm of Scripture's overall, greater teaching of the _____ of the Holy Spirit to always point to _____ and see to the _____ of His Word and ways.

Zechariah 4 • The Work of the Spirit

---

1. (v.1-10) Biblically a lamp is often the metaphor for _____ and oil the _____ of the Holy Spirit. When combined with the repeated use of a plumb line to represent something being measured against the standard of _____, we see that Holy Spirit is at work bringing everything into _____ with God's Word and ways in spite of how it may appear from an earthly perspective. Being more concerned with quality than quantity, it is faithfulness in the _____ things which lead to accomplishing the _____ achievements of the Kingdom.
2. (v.11-14) Just as God the _____ was depicted in the previous vision in His dual work in both the heavenly and the earthly realms, so here the work of God the _____ is likewise illuminated. That there is an anointing of the _____ is sometimes an extension of His _____ to ensure that God's _____ is brought to _____.
3. Overall: What is seen here is a microcosm of Scripture's overall, greater teaching of the _____ of the Holy Spirit to always point to _____ and see to the _____ of His Word and ways.