

Matthew 1 • The Working of Providence & Promise

- (v.1-17) The primary purpose and theme of Matthew's Gospel is to prove Jesus is the _____, the _____.
  - This genealogy is a very powerful testimony to _____.
  - This genealogy is a very powerful testimony to God's _____ to fulfill His promises.
  - This genealogy has _____ application for every believer.
  - This genealogy belongs to the only Jew alive today who can claim lineage to the _____.
[References: Rev. 22:16; Rom. 1:1-4; 2 Ki. 11; Tamar: Gen. 38; Rahab: Josh. 2 & Heb. 11:31; Ruth (Ruth); Is. 41:4; Is. 46:10; Is. 55:11]
- (v.18-19) Joseph was a biblically righteous man who sought to retain the spirit of _____ while upholding the _____.
- (v.20-23) Herein is expressed the working of God to fulfill His _____ which work in concert with His providence; they are not _____ exclusive.
- (v.24-25) True followers do not stand idly by depending only on God's _____ whether through providence or promise – they are willing and obedient _____ in His will.

Overall Application: Some things are brought about according to His _____ intervention, some things according to the unconditional _____ He has made, but in all things requires our obedient _____ according to the greater working of His _____.
