

Matthew 15:29-16:12 • On Whose Terms?

1. (15:29-31) It begins with recognizing someone _____ than one's self is needed to meet their _____.
2. (15:32-39) The Father has sufficient _____ in spite of our earthly perspective to the _____.
3. (16:1-4) Miracles are only effective to actually _____ someone for those who accept the greater _____ accompanying them.
4. (16:5-12) It is not _____ which multiply into a revival, but the acceptance and working of the _____ of Christ, first through the _____ message, and then as a sign of true repentance to put it into _____.

Matthew 15:29-16:12 • On Whose Terms?

1. (15:29-31) It begins with recognizing someone _____ than one's self is needed to meet their _____.
2. (15:32-39) The Father has sufficient _____ in spite of our earthly perspective to the _____.
3. (16:1-4) Miracles are only effective to actually _____ someone for those who accept the greater _____ accompanying them.
4. (16:5-12) It is not _____ which multiply into a revival, but the acceptance and working of the _____ of Christ, first through the _____ message, and then as a sign of true repentance to put it into _____.