

Matthew 15:29-16:12 • On Whose Terms?

1. (15:29-31) It begins with recognizing someone greater than one's self is needed to meet their needs.
2. (15:32-39) The Father has sufficient resources in spite of our earthly perspective to the contrary.
3. (16:1-4) Miracles are only effective to actually change someone for those who accept the greater message accompanying them.
4. (16:5-12) It is not miracles which multiply into a revival, but the acceptance and working of the Word of Christ, first through the Gospel message, and then as a sign of true repentance to put it into practice.
