

Matthew 21:23-22:14 • Three Parables for Israel

1. (23:23-27) God does not reveal new _____ until we obey what has already been _____.
2. (23:28-32) God measures righteousness not by what one _____ but by what one _____.
3. (23:33-46) God the _____ can never be reached without coming to Him through God the _____.
4. (22:1-14) Rejection of God's _____ is rejection of Christ Himself and comes with permanent, eternal _____.

The overall spiritual history of Israel:

- The Parable of the Two Sons: She disobeyed the _____.
- The Parable of the Vineyard: She crucified the _____.
- The Parable of the Marriage Feast: She resisted the _____.
- She was chosen by God to be _____ but failed to _____.
- This is actually a picture of the meaning of “_____”, what it means for someone to “_____”.

Matthew 21:23-22:14 • Three Parables for Israel

1. (23:23-27) God does not reveal new _____ until we obey what has already been _____.
2. (23:28-32) God measures righteousness not by what one _____ but by what one _____.
3. (23:33-46) God the _____ can never be reached without coming to Him through God the _____.
4. (22:1-14) Rejection of God's _____ is rejection of Christ Himself and comes with permanent, eternal _____.

The overall spiritual history of Israel:

- The Parable of the Two Sons: She disobeyed the _____.
- The Parable of the Vineyard: She crucified the _____.
- The Parable of the Marriage Feast: She resisted the _____.
- She was chosen by God to be _____ but failed to _____.
- This is actually a picture of the meaning of “_____”, what it means for someone to “_____”.