

Mathew 25 • What Jesus Says About the Last Days

1. (v.1-13) The prepared are differentiated from the unprepared because rather than casually adhere to the _____, they abide in His _____.
2. (v.14-18) The prepared are differentiated from the unprepared because they continue the _____ of the Kingdom up until the very _____ of the King.
3. (v.19-23) The prepared are differentiated from the unprepared because they understand this _____ is but a test for the _____.
4. (v.24-30) The prepared are differentiated from the unprepared who fail to follow through _____ the Word with _____ the Word.
5. (v.31-46) The prepared are differentiated from the unprepared because of their fulfillment of the whole _____ through _____ of others.

Overall Application:

- In the first half of the Olivet Discourse (chapter 24), Jesus provided many details about the Last Days. In these parables following that up, how important was knowing the specific time and date of His Return?
- What seems to be the most important lesson in all three teachings in this chapter?
- How should you be preparing for the Last Days?

Mathew 25 • What Jesus Says About the Last Days

1. (v.1-13) The prepared are differentiated from the unprepared because rather than casually adhere to the _____, they abide in His _____.
2. (v.14-18) The prepared are differentiated from the unprepared because they continue the _____ of the Kingdom up until the very _____ of the King.
3. (v.19-23) The prepared are differentiated from the unprepared because they understand this _____ is but a test for the _____.
4. (v.24-30) The prepared are differentiated from the unprepared who fail to follow through _____ the Word with _____ the Word.
5. (v.31-46) The prepared are differentiated from the unprepared because of their fulfillment of the whole _____ through _____ of others.

Overall Application:

- In the first half of the Olivet Discourse (chapter 24), Jesus provided many details about the Last Days. In these parables following that up, how important was knowing the specific time and date of His Return?
- What seems to be the most important lesson in all three teachings in this chapter?
- How should you be preparing for the Last Days?