

Mark 2 • The Nature of Christ's Ministry

1. (v.1-12) Someone who cannot accept Christ's _____ cannot accept His _____, and therefore will not accept Him as _____. Where Christ is concerned it is always about the _____.
2. (v.13-17) Christ took the _____ wherever there was an opportunity to restore a _____.
3. (v.18-22) Christ does not mix the _____ with the _____ of men whose wrong beliefs prevent them from distinguishing the _____ of God's Word.
4. (v.23-28) Christ's _____ is the greater application of _____ applied to the Law.
5. Every group in this chapter who opposed Christ:
 - a. All had a basic, personal problem with the _____.
 - b. All _____ God's Word, exchanging its original intent for something _____.
 - c. None could accept His _____ because they could not accept His _____; therefore they _____ Him.
 - d. To those _____ Christ taught and ministered by which they were _____; to those _____ Christ firmly established the truth by which they would be _____.

Mark 2 • The Nature of Christ's Ministry

1. (v.1-12) Someone who cannot accept Christ's _____ cannot accept His _____, and therefore will not accept Him as _____. Where Christ is concerned it is always about the _____.
2. (v.13-17) Christ took the _____ wherever there was an opportunity to restore a _____.
3. (v.18-22) Christ does not mix the _____ with the _____ of men whose wrong beliefs prevent them from distinguishing the _____ of God's Word.
4. (v.23-28) Christ's _____ is the greater application of _____ applied to the Law.
5. Every group in this chapter who opposed Christ:
 - a. All had a basic, personal problem with the _____.
 - b. All _____ God's Word, exchanging its original intent for something _____.
 - c. None could accept His _____ because they could not accept His _____; therefore they _____ Him.
 - d. To those _____ Christ taught and ministered by which they were _____; to those _____ Christ firmly established the truth by which they would be _____.