

Mark 12:13-34 • Three Types of Challengers

1. (v.13-17) How to deal with _____.
 - a. Make a distinction between the things of _____ and the things of this _____.
 - b. They must _____ between the things of this life or the next.
 - c. We are most like Pharisees when we seek to make this life better at the expense of _____.
2. (v.18-27) How to deal with the _____.
 - a. _____, with the truth of God's Word.
 - b. They must stop using the things of _____ to justify things _____.
 - c. We are most like Sadducees when we seek to be " _____ " in our arguments at the expense of our _____.
3. (v.28-34) How to deal with the _____.
 - a. Enable them to seek God on _____ terms rather than their _____.
 - b. They need to be _____ to seek the things of God.
 - c. We are most like the scribe when we seek to personally apply _____.
4. How do these attributes compare with Christ's admonition in last week's reading to come to Him as a _____ and aspire to become a _____?

Mark 12:13-34 • Three Types of Challengers

1. (v.13-17) How to deal with _____.
 - a. Make a distinction between the things of _____ and the things of this _____.
 - b. They must _____ between the things of this life or the next.
 - c. We are most like Pharisees when we seek to make this life better at the expense of _____.
2. (v.18-27) How to deal with the _____.
 - a. _____, with the truth of God's Word.
 - b. They must stop using the things of _____ to justify things _____.
 - c. We are most like Sadducees when we seek to be " _____ " in our arguments at the expense of our _____.
3. (v.28-34) How to deal with the _____.
 - a. Enable them to seek God on _____ terms rather than their _____.
 - b. They need to be _____ to seek the things of God.
 - c. We are most like the scribe when we seek to personally apply _____.
4. How do these attributes compare with Christ's admonition in last week's reading to come to Him as a _____ and aspire to become a _____?