

Mark 14:1-42 • Preparing for God's Will

1. (v.1-2) The Authorities Prepare Their Own Plan: Man makes plans according to his own _____; where appropriate God causes them to be conformed to His _____.
2. (v.3-9) God's Preparation for His Own Plan: Every heart makes a choice to either support and follow Christ in _____ and _____ or to work against Him according to rebellious _____.
3. (v.10-11) Man's Preparations: Where Christ is concerned every heart will be a _____ to the world or _____ exclusively for Him stemming from their free will of _____.
4. (v.12-16) The Messiah's Preparations: Where Christ is concerned we must follow through in our personal choice and actions to live _____ with His will for our individual life in accordance with His greater _____.
5. (v.17-21) Preparing Those in Rejection of Christ: We can choose to either be _____ or _____ participants where God's Word and will is concerned, but it will be _____ regardless.
6. (v.22-26) Preparing Those in Acceptance of Christ: Christ provided the Church with a reminder that by personal _____ and the application of _____ each believer participates in God's salvific plan both for this _____ and the _____.
7. (v.27-31) Knowing What Will Happen vs. What Is Intended: We do not have to be _____ in order to accomplish God's will through us because there is always restoration through _____ and _____ to His Word.
8. (v.32-42) In the Midst of Knowing God's Will: Through Christ's personal example we understand that although God's will has a plan for our life, it is our own _____ as to whether it will be _____ accomplished through us.
9. Application: The tension between free will and God's foreordained plans are to be kept in _____ balance, neither actually contradicting the other. We are called but choose whether or not to _____ that call. If we choose our own way God will _____ those ill intentions to accomplish His will anyway.
