

John 20:1-18 • The Truth of the Resurrection

1. (v.1-2) Faith can be rendered _____ when we no longer cling to the literal truth of His _____ and instead begin to allow an earthly perspective to _____ the truth.

2. (v.3-10) Their faith, which had been _____ by the earthly circumstances of Christ's death, was now beginning to _____ a little brighter in view of the _____, but was still not fully embracing the _____.

3. (v.11-18) It may be good to have faith that is based on solid _____, but the _____ should lead us to the _____ which should lead us to the _____. The key to biblical faith is the _____.

Overall Application:

_____ faith says, "Christ lives!"; _____ faith says, "Christ lives in me!"

John 20:1-18 • The Truth of the Resurrection

1. (v.1-2) Faith can be rendered _____ when we no longer cling to the literal truth of His _____ and instead begin to allow an earthly perspective to _____ the truth.

2. (v.3-10) Their faith, which had been _____ by the earthly circumstances of Christ's death, was now beginning to _____ a little brighter in view of the _____, but was still not fully embracing the _____.

3. (v.11-18) It may be good to have faith that is based on solid _____, but the _____ should lead us to the _____ which should lead us to the _____. The key to biblical faith is the _____.

Overall Application:

_____ faith says, "Christ lives!"; _____ faith says, "Christ lives in me!"