

Acts 16 • God's Will vs. Our Perception

1. (v.6-8) We should _____ our plans to the best of our ability but remain open to the _____ direction to _____ them.
2. (v.9-10) God will reveal the greater _____ we cannot see.
3. (v.11-15) The Holy Spirit knows how to most effectively _____ the Gospel for _____ results.
4. (v.16-18) Satan will most certainly attempt to work against us by way of some kind of _____ – attacks from _____.
5. (v.19-24) If necessary, Satan will work against us through _____ – attacks from _____.
6. (v.25-30) _____ are often deceiving; we will be used by God under any set of _____.
7. (v.31-32) The Gospel is the opportunity to begin _____.
8. (v.33-34) Addressing _____ needs is often the first step toward addressing _____ needs.

Acts 16 • God's Will vs. Our Perception

1. (v.6-8) We should _____ our plans to the best of our ability but remain open to the _____ direction to _____ them.
2. (v.9-10) God will reveal the greater _____ we cannot see.
3. (v.11-15) The Holy Spirit knows how to most effectively _____ the Gospel for _____ results.
4. (v.16-18) Satan will most certainly attempt to work against us by way of some kind of _____ – attacks from _____.
5. (v.19-24) If necessary, Satan will work against us through _____ – attacks from _____.
6. (v.25-30) _____ are often deceiving; we will be used by God under any set of _____.
7. (v.31-32) The Gospel is the opportunity to begin _____.
8. (v.33-34) Addressing _____ needs is often the first step toward addressing _____ needs.